Cosmos Creations Becomes Kosher Dairy Certified

March 1, 2013 (Junction City, OR)— KOF-K Kosher Supervision, one of the world's most widely respected kosher certifiers, has certified Cosmos Creations premium puffed corn snacks kosher dairy.

After conducting a facility inspection—reviewing all aspects of production, KOF-K, managing certification of some of America's most well-known brand names for nearly 50 years, kosherized the Cosmos Creations production plant.

"We knew it would be an important step to become Kosher certified and we're committed to maintaining the certification," stated Cosmos Creations vice president of sales, Jerid Strasheim.

The KOF-K Dairy seal will be printed on all Cosmos Creations packaging moving forward so consumers know they are buying food that meets the highest levels of Kosher law.

More information on KOF-K can be found by visiting www.kof-k.org.
